

Job Title	Short Term Consultants - Humanitarian Aid, Crisis Management and Post-Crisis assistance
Introduction	Edinburgh International is actively preparing the next round of Framework contract beneficiaries due to start in September 2009. The objective of Framework contracts is to provide short-term operational services (carry out studies, provide technical assistance advice and support) on the spot in all technical sectors covered by external aid for the benefit of third countries receiving external aid as well as European Commission services. For this purpose AESA is seeking for consultants available for short-term assignments worldwide in the field of Humanitarian Aid, Crisis Management and Post-Crisis assistance (lot 12).
Full / Part Time	Full Time - Short Engagements
Positions Available	Multiple
Role Purpose	Provide consultancy in one (or more) of the following specialist areas: 4. Monitoring/observing cease-fire/peace accords and agreements 6. Demobilisation, disarmament and reintegration (DDR of armed forces, including child soldiers. Point 6 hereunder is dealing with arms disseminated within civil populations) 7. Clearance of mines and unexploded ordnance and related activities (including mine awareness, marking of minefields, impact survey, training and research) 11. Post-conflict transitional relief measures, including employment generation, transitional justice and security measures and Security Sector Reform 12. Logistical support to operations (including planning of complex missions, transport, provision of security, telecommunications) 14. Civil protection 15. Exploratory missions for EU Election Observation Missions
Skills / Competences	Communication <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Presentation skills ○ Communication – written & oral/ability to communicate complex ideas concisely. ○ Active listening Problem Solving/Decision Making <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Information gathering ○ Analytical & Interpretation skills ○ Decision making & judgment Additional Specific Skills: Problem Solving a. programme / project identification and preparation / formulation,

	b. programme / project implementation, c. preparation of Terms of Reference (services) and technical annexes (works, supplies) and evaluation of offers (Procurement), e. evaluations (ex-ante, interim, ex-post etc.), monitoring as well as a number of horizontal aspects: f. (Cross-) sectoral policies and reforms, h. Public financial management, i. legislation, regulations and law enforcement, k. institutional building, l. training and research, m. awareness-raising, (incl. information and communication)
Experience, Qualifications, other requirements	Essential: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Extensive, active past performance in one (or more) of the roles outlined above
Location	Worldwide
Life Support	Provided
Remuneration	Negotiable - Excellent
Leave	N/A
Travel	Required
Point of Contact	uk@edinburghint.com
Further Information	For further information about Edinburgh International, visit www.edinburghint.com

Edinburgh International is an equal opportunities employer. This means that it is the Company's policy that there should be no discrimination against or harassment of any employee or job applicant either directly or indirectly on the grounds of:

- Race, colour, nationality or national or ethnic origin ("race");
- Sex or marital status;
- Disability (e.g., a long term mental or physical impairment);
- Sex change status;
- Sexual orientation;
- Religion or philosophical belief;
- Political belief;
- Trade union activity or
- Age.

For further details, please refer to our Equal Opportunities Policy